Artists drop in to bring carnival feel to pupils

A Muswell Hill primary school got busy embracing the spirit of Brazilian carnival as it celebrated its first ever art week.

Muswell Hill Primary School pupils turned their hands to making masks, musical instruments, outdoor sketching, tin foil sculptures and much more last week.

The primary welcomed a number of artists during the week, including "Chewing Gum Man" Ben Wilson, multi-media artist Tim Blake and fine artist Emmylou.

Year 1 teacher and art week organiser Toby Harrison said the event was a chance to "uncover hidden talent" and give budding artists the chance to discover new mediums.

An exhibition of the children's work will go on show on Friday June 6.
