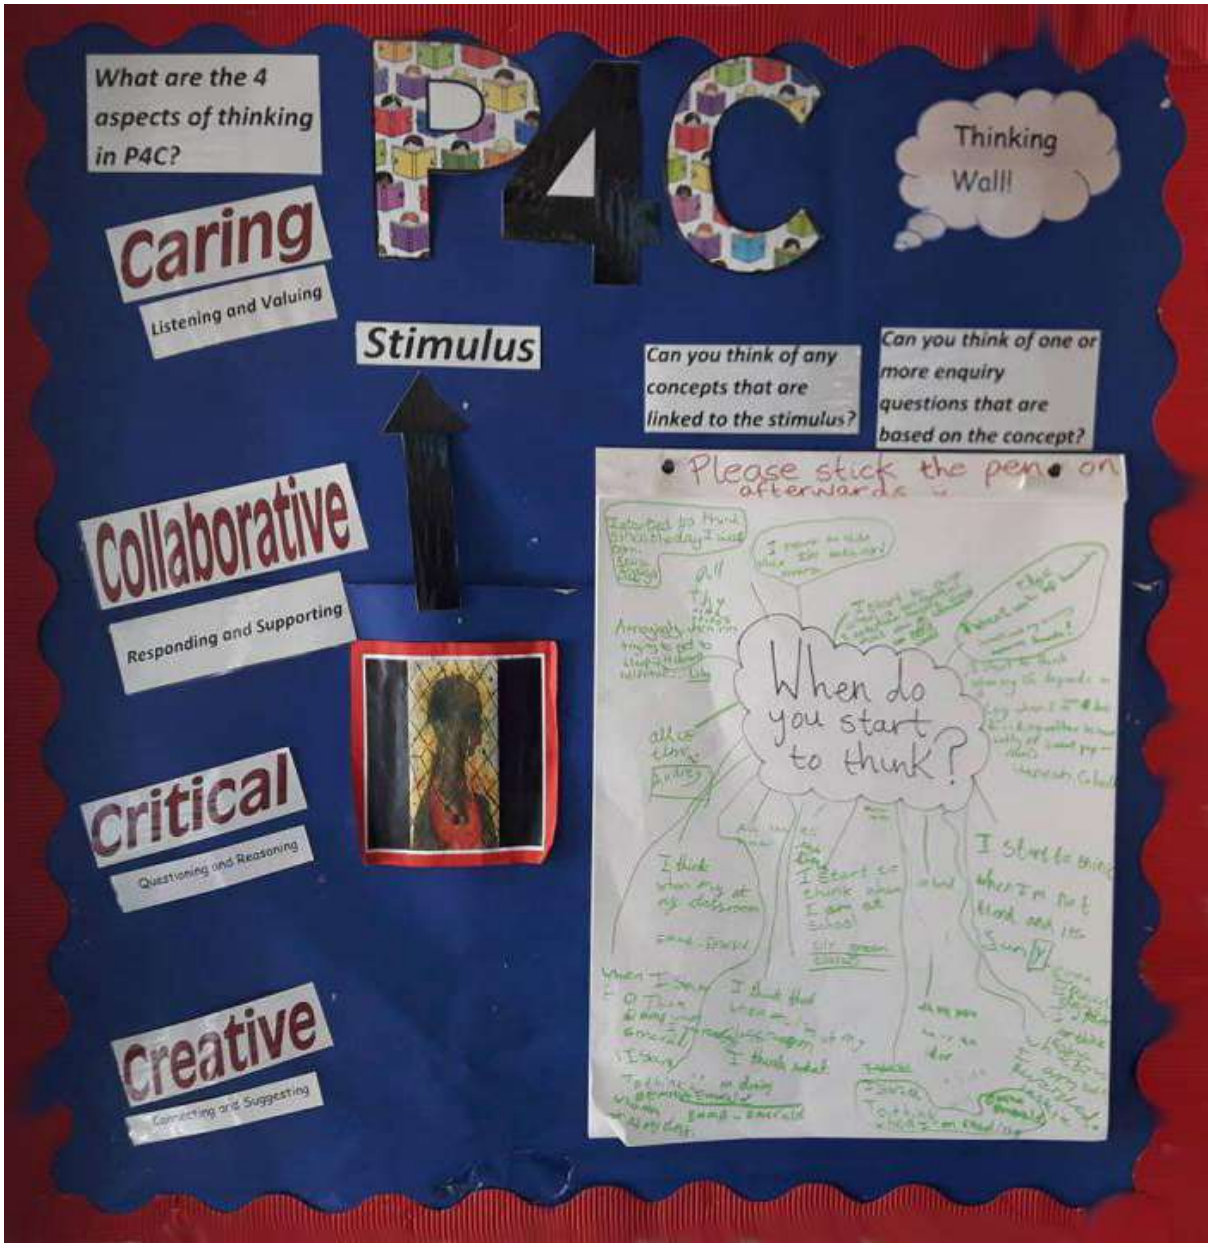
Our P4C Thinking Wall

Outside the Junior Hall there is a P4C display board called our 'Thinking Wall'. A P4C question is written on the scrapbook on this board by our P4C subject leader and children are free to write their responses to the question. This question changes every few weeks.


Our latest question on the P4C Thinking Wall was: When do you start to think?